COMPLAINT – CIVIL ACTION - ERISA

Plaintiff alleges:

TYPE OF ACTION

1. This is an action brought under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”), as amended, to contest the unjustified and erroneous premature termination of benefits to Plaintiff by Defendant, The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company (“Lincoln”) under a Group Long-Term Disability Insurance Policy issued to the County of Montgomery, Pennsylvania (the “Plan”). Plaintiff had been receiving disability benefits since September of 2013 and, although her condition did not improve and would ultimately necessitate a hip replacement in October of 2014, Lincoln wrongly terminated her benefits as of May 19, 2014.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Margaret (Meg) G. Blatman is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, residing in Norristown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.

3. The Plan was established and is maintained by Defendant Lincoln for the benefit of employees of the County of Montgomery, Pennsylvania – including Plaintiff – under Group Policy No. 000010135317.
4. Defendant Lincoln is a corporation with its principal place of business at its Group Insurance Service Office in Omaha, Nebraska.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. The Plan is an “employee welfare benefit plan” or a “welfare plan” subject to ERISA, including its civil enforcement provisions. ERISA Sections 3(1), 3(3), 4(a), 502(a)(1)(B), and (a)(3), 29 U.S.C. Sections 1002(1), (3), 1003(a), 1132(a)(1)(B), and (a)(3).
6. This Court has jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1331, and pursuant to Sections 502(a)(1)(B) and (a)(3) of ERISA 29 U.S.C. Sections 1132(a)(1)(B), (a)(3), (e)(1) and (g).
7. Venue is appropriate pursuant to ERISA Section 502(e)(2), 29 U.S.C. Sections 1132(e)(2), because, inter alia, the breach that is the subject of this lawsuit took place in this district.

CAUSE OF ACTION:
IMPROPER TERMINATION OF LONG-TERM DISABILITY BENEFITS

8. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs one through seven of this Complaint as if fully set forth here.
9. Coverage under the Plan was provided by Lincoln to Plaintiff Blatman as an employee of the County of Montgomery, Pennsylvania, and she has at all times complied with all relevant terms and obligations of the Plan.

10. At the time Plaintiff Blatman's disability commenced, she was employed as a Support Conciliator in Montgomery County's domestic relations department, a quasi-judicial job which required constant physical activity.
11. Plaintiff Blatman's disability arose from two falls during an outpatient visit at Einstein Hospital in January of 2013, resulting in injuries to her knees and hip. Because the continuing pain built up to the point where she could not walk or sit to be able to perform her job duties, Plaintiff Blatman went on disability leave on June 13, 2013.
12. Plaintiff Blatman submitted a Long-Term Disability Claim to Lincoln dated August 10, 2013, and was approved for benefits by Lincoln beginning September 16, 2013.
13. Although Plaintiff Blatman's condition had not improved despite regular medical treatment since August of 2013 and she continued to suffer pain while walking or sitting, by letter dated May 20, 2014 Lincoln abruptly terminated Plaintiff Blatman's disability benefits beyond May 19, 2014, asserting she was now able to perform the main duties of her occupation, even though nothing had changed since benefits were originally approved in the summer of 2013.
14. Plaintiff Blatman filed an administrative appeal to Lincoln on September 23, 2014 of its termination of her benefits on beyond May 19, 2014. In support of her appeal, Plaintiff relied, inter alia, on:
 - a) A consultation by Dr. Charles Nelson of the University of Pennsylvania Health System on August 29, 2013, documenting that since her fall in January of 2013, Plaintiff Blatman "has had progressively increasing right hip pain which has been unresponsive to conservative management, ... a course of physical therapy, [and] a corticosteroid injection into her hip.... She says her pain is all the time, abut it is worse when she is sitting.”

- b) Dr. Zach Broyer’s Progress Note on May 8, 2014, documenting that Plaintiff Blatman’s “Pain is a 6 to 10. It is worse sitting and walking.... Sleep is interrupted due to pain.”
- c) Dr. William Hozack’s Consultation on June 17, 2014, documenting that Plaintiff Blatman has “hip pain which is severe in quality [and] significantly limits activities of daily living. Walking tolerance is reduced.... Pain and restriction of function are intolerable at this time.... Due to the level and length of the patient’s pain, conservative treatment measures such as physical therapy, corticosteroid injections and/or viscosupplementation injections would not provide any significant long term benefit.” Hip replacement surgery was recommended.
- d) A subsequent Progress Note by Dr. Broyer on July 17, 2014 documenting that Plaintiff Blatman “in now having neck pain, and she does have mid back pain. It is constant, aching, burning, throbbing, and sharp, 6 to an 8 in the low back and 10 in the neck and mid back. It is worse sitting and standing. Best lying supine.... Sleep is interrupted due to pain.”
- e) At Lincoln’s request, Dr. Broyer prepared an “Attending Physician’s Statement – Disability” on October 8, 2014 documenting that Plaintiff Blatman is “totally disabled” both for “Patient’s Job” and “Any other work.”
- f) Finally, at Lincoln’s request, Dr. Hozack also prepared an “Attending Physician’s Statement – Disability” on October 24, 2014 – following Plaintiff Blatman’s hip replacement surgery – documenting that her condition was “Unchanged” and she had a Class 4 (highest) Physical Impairment, with Severe limitation of functional capacity; incapable of minimum (sedentary) activity.”

15. Although the totality of medical documentation by the doctors who had been examining Plaintiff Blatman – without exception – dispository affirmed that – both before and after Lincoln’s termination of disability benefits – Plaintiff Blatman was suffering severe pain sitting, walking and standing, thus rendering her incapable of performing her regular job duties as a Custody Conciliator at least until she recovered from the hip replacement surgery, on July 23, 2015 Lincoln denied Plaintiff Blatman’s appeal, leaving May 19, 2014 as the effective date of benefit termination.
16. The plain and unmistakable error in Lincoln’s July 23, 2015 appeal denial is that all relevant medical documentation substantiated that Plaintiff Blatman was clearly totally disabled beyond May 19, 2014, at least until it was determined whether the hip replacement surgery in October of 2014 was successful. Lincoln’s refusal and failure during the administrative appeal to extend disability benefits from May 19, 2014 to at least after Plaintiff Blatman had recovered from her hip replacement surgery is an egregious breach of Lincoln’s obligations to its insured.
17. On January 22, 2016, Plaintiff Blatman requested a final administrative review of Lincoln from its July 23, 2015 appeal denial, highlighting the about medical evidence. By letter dated March 22, 2016, however, Lincoln refused to reconsider its original decision to terminate Plaintiff Blatman’s disability benefits beyond May 29, 2014 – four-plus months before she underwent her hip replacement surgery – relying instead on an old, superseded job classification by the Department of Labor, and its consultant’s convenient but totally unsupportable implication – without examining Plaintiff Blatman – that she could perform her job duties because her admitted “impairment” did not prevent her from sitting, standing, and walking without severe pain.

18. Lincoln’s refusal to extend disability benefits past May 19, 2014 – to at least after Plaintiff Blatman’s October 2014 hip replacement surgery – was erroneous, against the weight of the evidence, in violation of the terms of the Plan, and arbitrary and capricious.
19. Despite the evidence submitted in support of Plaintiff Blatman’s request for review, Lincoln has failed to make a determination on her appeal or to otherwise overturn or at least revise the effective date of its termination of benefits, which failure is erroneous, against the weight of the evidence, in violation of the terms of the Plan, and arbitrary and capricious.
20. But for Lincoln’s improper termination of benefits on May 29, 2014, Plaintiff Blatman was entitled to continue receiving disability benefits under the Plan, and has been damaged by the amount of unpaid monthly disability benefits she would have received through the date of this Complaint and until the date of judgment.

PRAYER

Plaintiff Margaret (Meg) G. Blatman demands judgment:

- A. On her cause of action against Defendant The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company, awarding her the monthly disability benefits to which she was entitled since May 19, 2014, when her benefits were wrongfully terminated, with pre-judgement interest from the accrual date of each benefit payment;

B. Reinstating Plaintiff Blatman's monthly disability benefits until and unless it is substantiated that her hip replacement surgery and/or other medical treatment has successfully eliminated her disability and she is able to return to her normal job duties; and

C. Together, with interest, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of this action, and such other, further and different relief as the Court deems just, proper and equitable.
